JACK ATKIN DISAPPOINTS

RUNS THIRD TO LOVETIE AND OLAMBALA IN MINORU PLATE.

Famous Sprinter Had His Customary Speed, but Failed to Stay-Largest Crowd of the Season in Attendance at Woodbine.

Toronto, Ont., September 29.—Ideal racing weather, coupled with other favorable conditions, brought out the largest crowd that has attended the races at Woodbine this fall. The track was in excellent condition and fast time was the rule during the afternoon. The club provided a splendid program, with the Elgin Purse, the Epsom Handicap, the Brockenburst Steeplechase Handicap and the Minoru Plate the attractions. Class was conspicuous and the sport was keen. Form players fared none too well, however, as only two of the favorites were first at the finish. One of them, Sweepaway, was at a short price, the layers closing at 1 to 3. Merry Man, the other winning favorite, was an even-money cleance.

One of the disappointments of the day was furnished by Jack Atkin, which was made an odds-on choice over Olambala and Lovetie in the Minoru Plate. The mile route proved a bit longer than the big son of Sain cared to go, and although he showed keen speed in the early stages he failed to stay and was beaten by Lovetie and Olambala. The latter horse finished with a rush and took second money. Courtiand Smith, whose jumpers have been winning with a regularity that myst be pleasing to the Virginia turfman, furnished hie winner in today's steeplechase in the rapid-going Merry Man, which outran and outfenced his opponents from start to finish. Merry Man won pulled up after opening a long lead on the second turn of the field.

This was the second running of the Minoru Plate. Its brief history is as follows:
Year. Winner. A.Wt. Jockey. Val. Time, 1909 Prince Ahmed. 5 119 Taplin ... $1,580 1:412 (1910 Lovetie ... 3 110 Gross ... 1,060 1:393 James Rowe's Sweepaway, after having twice suffered defeat since her arrival in Canada, heat au ordinary lot in the Blink Bonny Purse this afternoon. Sweepaway outclassed her company and won with plenty in reserve.

The race for Canadian-bred two-year-olds went to Joseph E. Seagram's Bride Lane, which won easily after racing Satin Bower into submission early.

The largest field of the afternoon

F. Richards, owner of the Delorimier Park track at Montreal, was a visitor at Woodbine this after moon.

The Masetto stallion, Charlie Gilbert, which was purchased by A. M. Orpen at the Hendrie sale of thoroughbreds yesterday, has been turned over to the Canadian Bureau of Breedling, which will place the horse on a farm in York County.

Dom Antonio was worked out an additional mile after his race this afternoon and covered it in 1:57. This was his final preparation for the Ontario Jockey Club Cup at two miles and a quarter to be run Saturday.

Judge Pettingill, representative of the New California Jockey Club, is due to arrive at Woodbine tomorrow. His mission here is to obtain entries for the stakes to be run at Oakhand the coming winter. Jockey Dreyer and owner George Little were arrivals from Montreal vesterday.

Several stables will be shipped from here direct to Pimlico at the conclusion of the Ontario Jockey Club meeting. This delegation will include a division of Thomas Clyde's string, the horses that Albert Simons is training for James Rowe, August Belmont's horses and the string of jumpers owned by Bartlett McLennan.

News comes from Saratoga that S. C. Hildreth's horses are still quartered there and that there is some doubt as to their racing again until the opening of the winter meeting at Jacksonville.

Rorty-three books cut in this afternoon, a record number for the Canadian circuit this season.

CAUGHNAWAGA DIES AT HURRICANA

New York, September 29.—E. J. Albright, trainer of Gen. Stephen Sanford's horses, writes from Amsterdam that Caughnawaga, greatest of the sons of Clifford, is dead. Acute indigestion carried off the big chestnut, whose dam was La Tosca, by St. Bialse. Caughnawaga was a half-brother to Chuctapunda and Mohawk II., also to La Tosca II., the dam of Sir John Johnson. He won the Twin City Handicap of 1904 and the Saratoga Handicap and Saratoga Cup of 1905. In each of the last-named races he beat Beldame.

The big son of Clifford was retired to the stud a few years back, and the first of his get came to the post at Saratoga last month. They were a nicelocking lot. Another batch of youngsters sired by him will race in 1911, and still another in 1912. His half-brothers, Mohawk II. and Chuctanunda, are still in service at Hurricana Stud.

RECORD ODDS IN FRENCH BETTING.

Paris, France. September 29.—When La Manché won the Prix du Rhone at Maisons-Laffitte yesterday and paid 668 to 1 in the pari-mutuels a record was established for long odds. It is said that an American trained the borse, which was one of little reputation.

The pari-mutuel machines

tation. The pari-mutuel machines used in France pay the total amount of money bet on all contesting horses. less the usual commission, to those who have backed the winner. Because La, Manche was comparatively an unknown horse, nobody bet on him except his owner. When the race was over it was discovered that each hundred francs bet on La Manche had won 66,790 francs.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

A. C. S., Chicago, At Louisville. G. R., Kansas City, Mo. The scratching of Semrolus made the bet a draw.

Ben F., Detroit, Mich. In order for the backer of Ben Uncas to win it was necessary that his horse should finish in the first three.

ANOTHER INSTALLMENT OF RECORDS OF VETERANS WHICH HAVE RACED THIS YEAR

In the descending scale in respect to aggregate earnings in racing, the records of a number of horses well known to all conversant with the affairs of the turf are here presented. All of these horses have raced this year and it is quite probable that the majority of them will be found racing next year. It would seen that such faithful slaves of the track as Pickaway, Rebo, Dargin and Cloudlight have earned peaceful re threment, but they are still able to win a bit here and there and their owners need the money. It will be noticed that it has required the running of many races to enable them to amass the by no means inconsid-

EASTERN HORSES TO RACE AT MARLBORO.

New York, September 20.—A number of small stables at the Gravesend track are in training preparatory to shipment to Marlboro, Md., where racing begins next Tuesday. Superintendent Dunphy has the track harrowed every morning, and it is in fine condition for the trainers to work their horses over. All the horses, with the exception of six Belmont yearlings in the Welsh barn, will race at Marlboro. All have been freshened and will be ready to race up to their best form.

John Mayberry has the Marfone horses in charge, five in all. St. Joseph. Frank Purcell. Hibernica. Pantouffe and a two-year-old filly all look well after a short rest, and are taking usual gallops.

A. G. Molinelli, who shares the same barn with Mayberry, has the two Hynes cast-offs, Handruning and Ortson. Both are showing some improvement.

James McLaughlin has four in actual training and three yearlings which have been broken and turned out. Campaigner, Dress Parade II. and the two-year-olds, Forrester, a brother to Fauntleroy, and the filly Altadena all are now up to best form, and will leave on Saturday for Marlboro.

Frank Regan's good plater, Ardri, has entirely recovered from the injury he received in a race at the Empire City track. He is now going along in a satisfactory manner. His half-brother, Glandore, shows improvement since Mr. Regam bought him from John Hynes at Empire City. Both will leave on Monday for Marlboro.

J. L. McGinnis' horses, in charge of J. I. Smith, are doing good work every day. There are six in the string, but Mr. McGinnis latends to race only four at Marlboro, Fair Miss and Killarney Rose will do the racing for the stable. Sam Jackson and Cu Bon will be turned out and reserved for their three-year-old form.

Richard and Julias Bauer have three in training—Florimel, Perkoe and Florentine. All are in the best of condition and will ship the first of next week to Marihoro. C. Leighton has Huda's Sister going along.

J. A. Bennet is a visitor to the track every morning with his fast filly, Aldivia, and his promising Alforten colt, All White. They are taking their usual gallops.

Jockey Nicolai has shipped to Mariboro Court Lady and a two-year-old.

Louis Henner has Castlewood going along nicely. He will leave for Mariboro on Tuesday next.

George Kraus has five at Gravesend under the care of his old trainer. Dan Winslow. These are Antenor, Footlights, Mombassa. Our Hannah and a two-year-old. The intention of the stable at the present time is to wait until the Baltimore meeting, when they will do some racing, and then come back to Gravesend to winter.

OCEAN BOUND IS THE FAVORITE.

Probable Starters and Jockeys for Tomorrow's Running of the St. Leger at Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., September 29.—It is regarded as probable that the field for the St. Leger Handicap, the feature of the hanguration of the fall race meeting at Charchill Downs Saturday afternoon, will embrace sixteen horses. Below will be found the likely starters, the weights assigned and the probable riders:

Jupiter Joe 4 103 A. Walsh The Peer 4 100 A. Thomas Royal Report 3 100 Jones The best work today of the above-mentioned horses was by Ocean Bound. She went a mile in 1:42. Harrigan went the same distance in 1:45. Czar went a mile and one-eighth in 1:57$, running the first mile in 1:43 and the mile and a sixteenth in 1:49. All of the others whose names appear here worked a mile slowly, except Cherryola, Mary Davis, Countless and Emperor William, which are not due here from Lexington mutil tomorrow. The consensus of opinion is that Ocean Bound will rule a mild favorite, with Countless a strong second choice.

S. C. Hildreth will have no starter in the St. Leger. Secretary Lyman H. Davis received a telegram today from the owner of Fitz Herbert and Novelty, stating that he would not come west this fall with his string, as his horses are not ready to race. Mr. Hildreth was sincere in his original intention to come here, as shown by his payment of $500 entrance nomination fees in the local stakes. His message indicates that his horses have been to some extent alling since the Saratoga meeting.

W. A. Kirwan arrived from St. Louis with four-teen horses owned by Barney Schreiber. In the shipment were Woodlands Rose, Florence A., Rodman, Fred Essen, Ann Schuyler, Emma L., Judge Henderson and Vreeland. Mr. Kirwan says Mr. Schreiber has eighty-six vearlings and that the youngsters in the lot by Sain look to be better than any hitherto produced by that noted stallion.

Other arrivals today at Churchill Downs were James Everman, with T. M. Green and three others; E. Corrigan, with ten, which came direct from the far west; J. Baker, with nine, including the Latonia Derby winner Joe Morris, Jeff Bernstein, Aspirin, Alice Baird, J. W. Carter and four two-year-olds.

Jockey Conley arrived today from the west, where he has been riding on the inter-mountain circuit.
